

Naturalization Study Guide

To be eligible for naturalization, you must be able to read, write, and speak basic English. You must also have a basic knowledge of U.S. History and Government. See pages 26-27 in A Guide to Naturalization for more information about the English and civics requirements.

The questions on the next few pages are examples of questions an CIS officer may ask you at your interview.

The sentences in this section are examples of the types of sentences an CIS officer may ask you to read aloud or write during your interview.

Please remember that the questions and sentences in this study guide are examples only. The CIS officer who interviews you may ask you to answer other questions or to read or write other sentences.
